New Business

The PAC called this Executive meeting to discuss the current environment at the school.

All members of PAC Executive expressed the lack of inclusion during the decision making process and the disregard for due process for monetary requests. First example; involving the purchase of chrome books, and second example the funding of the playground.

After much discussion the PAC's opinion is the current administration is damaging aspects of the school and immediate action is required.

The PAC discussed how to move forward with the current situation in a professional manner. During the meeting it was decided to collectively write a letter to submit to Piet Langstraat Superintendent of S.D.61.

Chosen to represent the PAC at the meeting with the Superintendent are President Mark Downton, Past President Mo Jessa, and Vice President Pamela Duncan.
